

Hi PROBUS member,

I'm excited to announce that we're assembling a group of PROBUS Club members to attend Vancouver's most inspiring event of 2019 – Get Inspired Talks at the Playhouse Theatre on Saturday, October 19. Here's a short video that describes this event - Get Inspired Talks event . We'll share a memorable time together in VIP seats and enjoy up to 12 inspiring short talks (6 in the afternoon session and 6 in the evening) that offer fresh solutions to humanity's pressing problems.

An Afternoon or Evening ticket costs $47 + GST. An All Day ticket costs $94 + GST and includes a buffet dinner at the Sandman Hotel - a 5 minute walk from the Playhouse Theatre. Buy your ticket(s) by clicking this link - Probus VIP Group . It's REALLY important that you use this link to buy your ticket(s) because when you do, the event organizers know to seat you in the PROBUS Club reserved VIP section. In mid-October you'll be sent a seating map that shows where our group is sitting in the auditorium.

Please join us. Together we'll make fond memories and be informed, inspired and activated to move the needle toward a better world. Feel free to forward this invitation to those of your friends who might like to join the PROBUS Club VIP group.
